A GRAND BENEFIT.
NORFOLK COUNCIL KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS' CONCERT FOR ST.
VINCENT'S HOSPITAL.

The first grand concert under the auspices of Norfolk Council No. 367, Knights of Columbus, was given at the Academy of Music last night before a large and enthusiastic audience, and the building fund of St. Vincent's Hospital will receive a handsome addition, as the proceeds of the entertainment go to this laudable purpose.

The program, as published in the press, was carried out, with the exception that the contralto solo by Mrs.
Charles A. Smith, was not given, and Miss Mary K. Ewell was indisposed so that she was not heard.

All of the numbers were charmingly rendered and the audience was liberal in its applause. Mrs. J. P. Kevill was compelled to respond to an encore. Mr.
Terry B. Gordon recited "Wilfred Den-ver's Dream," and twice responded to encores. His exhibition of facial expressions was particularly excellent and amusing.

Miss Alice Jones first sang a contralto solo, "My Marguerite," and responded to an encore with a pleasing darkey lullaby, Mr. William Richards' bass solo, "The Outlaw," was so well received that he was compelled to respond to an encore, which he did, and sang with great power and feeling "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep."

Miss Mary Magee was also recalled and responded gracefully. Miss Sue Russell scored a big hit with a recitation on the theatre hat, in which she impersonated five characters. She thrice responded to recalls in a very graceful manner. Miss Alice J. Oliver's contralto solo, "The Wanderer," was very pleasing and as an encore she sang Suzanne River.

Mr. William Crowell, one of Norfolk's old and always popular singers, sang "Because," and his fine baritone voice was never heard to better advantage.
His recitatives were also perfect and added to the effect. He received applause at every pause and such a hearty encore that he was twice forced to return to the stage. As an encore he sang "Mamma's Little Dinnah," by H.
Clinton Clark, of New York, a well known writer of popular songs and member of the New York music publishing house of E. T. Paul & Co. This is the first time this pretty little ballad was ever heard in Norfolk. It was an instantaneous success and fittingly closed the excellent program of the evening.

The violin solo, "Il Trovatore," by Mr. Charles Borjes, vice president of the Norfolk Conservatory of Music, was executed with extreme delicacy and feeling. The baritone solo, by Mr. Albert Howard Garrett, teacher of vocal culture in the above named institution, was also very pleasing.

The concert was under the general direction of Mr. James W. Casey. Prof.
A. L. Koerner, Mr. W. H. Jones and Miss L. de Russey Berry acted as accountants.

The committee of arrangements was composed of D. J. Callahan, chairman, and Messrs. Leo Judson, James W. Casey, J. J. Riley, W. P. Murphy, T. H.
Synon and J. B. Maher.

The committee on program, composed of J. B. Maher, chairman, and Messrs.
C. R. Hedges, W. B. Burrow and Geo.
W. Rinehart, did their duty well. The program was neat and well arranged.

Mr. T. H. Synon acted gracefully as chairman at the opening of the concert.
Later he extended the thanks of the hospital management to the audience, and to all who contributed to make the concert a success.

Additional Subscription St. Vincent's
The following additional donations to the rebuilding fund of St. Vincent's Hospital were handed to Treasurer Benjamin yesterday:

Portland, Me., $50.

30 per cent. gate receipts last day of fair, $16.

The Delaware Legislature.
The Wilmington Sun of Monday says:
The trip of the Delaware Legislature and its guests to Old Point Comfort and Norfolk, Va., constituted the most successful reunion held by a Diamond State legislative body. The legislators and their guests returned Saturday evening on a special train, after having received a last of Southern hospitality which they will never forget.

The party has wisely concluded that Norfolk honored the Blue Hen's Chickens in a manner totally unexpected but agreeably accepted.

"Never quit certainly for hope." Never take a word of doubtful value instead of Hood's Sarsaparilla which is sure to do you good.

We are headquarters for all railroad watches. We carry the largest line in the city. Call and see our stock and learn prices. The Gale Jewelry Co.

Despite the scarcity of cloth, we have succeeded in importing the second lot of Drury and Co.'s finish wools. You must be an early caller to see this high grade goods. RUDOLPH & WALLACE, 233 Main street.

A New Undertaking Establishment has been opened by Thomas Scott's Sons & Co., at No. 36 Charlotte street.

tention day or night. Mr. George J.
McDermott, manager. Southern Bell

NEW NORFOLK BANK

Steps in Progress to Establish a New Private Bank in this City.

New York and Baltimore Capitalists are Behind the Deal—Propose to Handle Commercial Paper and Loans on Equity.

For some time the Virginian-Pilot has been aware that a movement was in progress to open a new bank in Norfolk, and the project now promises to culminate successfully in the near future.

The local end of the enterprise has been in the hands of one of Norfolk's well known attorneys, who is well posted on matters connected with loans and finance. The capitalists interested are well known money men of New York City and Baltimore.

A PRIVATE BANK.
On being interviewed yesterday by a representative of this paper, the legal gentlemen representing the capitalists confirmed the report of the movement, and stated that the new institution will be a private bank and savings bank.
Its object is to find safe investment for a large amount of Eastern capital at remunerative rates of interest. At the same time its projectors expect to handle good commercial paper and desirable real estate loans at much lower rates than now prevail here.

Present rates of discount in Norfolk are usually 6, 7 and 8 per cent. The new bank, it is stated, proposes to handle gilt-edge paper at 5, 6 and 7 per cent. It also proposes to make loans on choice real estate at rates below those now current.

The parties interested have made a careful survey of the local field, and have also investigated the rates of discount and interest on real estate loans in other of the more desirable parts of Virginia. As a result of this investigation they believe that the present is a most opportune time for establishing a new institution here of the character described.

It is understood that no name has definitely been decided upon, but it is stated that the name, "The Merchants' Savings Bank," has been under consideration. If all details progress satisfactorily, the projectors expect to have their new bank opened before next spring.

Musical and Literary Entertainment A most excellent musical program has been provided by the Woman's Home Mission Society of the Huntersville M. E. Church for Friday at 8 o'clock in the church, for the lovers of music.

Besides the vocalists, the largest graphophone south of Baltimore will furnish the celebrated baritone solos of Mr. J. W. Myers, of New York, and other literary selections. The program follows:

1. Graphophone—"The Heart Bowed Down"..... J. W. Myers
2. Recitation—"Anthony at Death of Caesar"..... Selected 3. Vocal Solo..... Selected
John Drew

4. Graphophone—"Forge in the Forest" 5. Tenor Solo..... "Remembrance" Blackwell Holland.
6. Graphophone..... "Let All Obey" J. W. Myers.
7. Graphophone—"Bye Bye, She'll Forget You"..... J. W. Myers 8. Violin Solo..... Geo. Nottingham 9. Contralto Solo..... Selected Miss Sallie R. Jones.
10. Graphophone..... Selected
John Drew.

Tribute to a Noble Man.
The Raleigh Biblical Recorder, the organ of the Baptist Church in North Carolina, pays the following beautiful and well deserved tribute to the late Dr. W. S. Lacy:

"North Carolina lost one of her noblest sons, and the world was bereft of one of its saintliest spirits when Rev.
W. S. Lacy, D. D., died at Raleigh, October 14th. He was a minister of the Presbyterian Church, and his communion never had an advocate more true to it or more sweetly tolerant of those who were of other churches. He was pure, indeed, from his earliest youth. He served in the war, both as a soldier of Christ and of the cause of his people. Eloquent of speech, he was more eloquent in the sweet example of life hid with Christ in God. To his sorrowing wife and to his brother, Mr. B.
R. Lacy, we extend sincere sympathy."

Beautiful Signs.
The beautiful signs just being erected by Watt, Rettew & Clay, at the store building corner of Main and Granby streets, are attracting much attention by reason of their size, beauty to finish and tastefulness of design.

They are to be placed on the Granby street side of their building and are nearly four feet long and four feet high.
This is said to be the largest sign south of New York. The sign for the Main street side is fifty feet long and six feet high.

The letters of these signs are Roman in style and both the letters and scrolls were carved out of white pine. They are covered with 22-karat gold and are finely secured to a strong background of galvanized wire.

The Case of Alex Tate.
The Court of Appeals denied Mr.
Hugh G. Miller's motion for a writ of error and supersedeas in the case of Alex. Tate, colored, in Richmond yesterday. Tate, it will be remembered, is confined in the county jail in Portsmouth under sentence of death for the murder on the outskirts of Portsmouth last spring. Mr. Miller, who is employed in the case by Colonel Julian Carr, of North Carolina, will now appeal to the Governor.

mond at rate of $2.50, including coupon

Pythian Convention.
PROGRAM OF EXERCISES AR-RANGED FOR TO-NIGHT.
Major R. E. Warren, District Deputy Grand Chancellor of the Knights of Pythias of the first district, has arranged his program for the second annual convention, which will be held in the Pythian Castle, Newport News, this evening, the arrangements for the reception and entertainment of the guests being in the hands of Warwick Lodge, No. 72, of that city.

Following are the addresses which will be delivered to-morrow night:

prominent Pythians from Norfolk, Portsmouth, Hampton, Deep Creek, Berkley, Suffolk, Franklin, Roman, Nimmo, Cape Charles and Reedsville.

The Pythians of Norfolk, Portsmouth and Berkley have chartered the old Dominion steamer Mohack to take them over at 6 p. m. this evening.

The members of Warwick Lodge are making extensive preparations for the event and the visiting Pythians will receive royal treatment.

A NEW INDUSTRY.
ESTABLISHED BY MR. J. M. UM-STADTER, OF NORFOLK.

Mr. J. M. Umstadter, of the Umstad-ter-Meyer Company, has established a plant in this city for the manufacture of popular and novelties of plaster of Paris, and is making preparations to push the sale of his products.

These novelties are of the kind that may be seen on sale in various Norfolk stores, and consist principally of tobacco jars, pipe racks, match holders and ash receivers. These have been on the market for some time and have proved so popular that Mr. Umstadter has decided to get a share of the trade.
In these wares the plastic material is moulded and modeled into such forms as heads, skulls, etc. A series of small heads of various nationalities, connected on one base, forms a unique and attractive piece of art, much prized by smokers for their artistic "fetters." In the smoking room no more popular article has been produced for many years.

Mr. Umstadter exhibited several specimens of the work of his plant to the Virginian-Pilot representative yesterday and described very interestingly the process of manufacture. He states that he expects to soon have several salesmen on the road and supply the trade at any point in the United States.
Samples of the work are now on exhibition at the store of the Umstadter-Meyer Company.

Wealth in a Shoe.
Dominico Diamando, an Italian shoemaker of Queen street, is probably the only man of his profession who has ever had a pair of shoes in his shop with $1,010 inclosed in one of them.
Fannie Barbour, wife of Jim Barbour, the colored saloon keeper, was the owner of the shoe and money. She put the money there for safe keeping, and forgot to remove it when she sent the shoe to Diamando to be repaired. Her mistake was soon discovered, and she reported it to the police. Detectives Heppel and West searched the Italian's shop and found the money secreted under a cot.

The Barbour woman had applied to the Italian for her money before reporting the loss to the police, but failed to get it, and when found by the officers, in his establishment, he was arrested, and will have a hearing in Police Court this morning.

Funeral of Mrs. McCarty.
The obsequies of Mrs. Susan M. Mc-Carty, relict of the late Captain Nell McCarty, were held from the residence, No. 422 West Highland avenue, Brambleton, at 10 o'clock yesterday morning.
The services were conducted by Rev.
Father Prioll, assistant pastor of St.
Mary's Catholic Church, and the interment was in Elmwood Cemetery. Following were the pall-bearers: Messrs.
C. H. Diges, S. S. Salyer, M. T. Cashin, S. C. Phillips, James O'Rourke, E. W.
Spivey and Captain C. S. Nelson. There was a handsome display of floral tributes.

Lecture on Architecture.
One of the classes of Miss Mary Gray at the Mary Washington College for Young Ladies is paying some attention to the study of the progress of the science of architecture.

In response to an invitation, Mr. C.
W. Russell, of this city, yesterday delivered an address before the class on the subject of "The Origin and Growth of Ancient and Classic Architecture." The address was one of much interest and value and greatly appreciated.
The thanks of the class were extended to Mr. Russell.

SECOND DAY

Of the Trial of the Coke-Ridgewell Shooting Case.

Defendant Testifies that He Shot Because of a Contention and a Note—Charged With Robbery—Sunday Liquor Selling.

The Coke-Ridgewell shooting case occupied another day in the Corporation Court yesterday, and is still unfinished.
Mr. Ridgewell returned to the stand for cross-examination when the trial was resumed yesterday morning. Counsel for the defense asked Mr. Ridgewell certain questions tending to show that Mr. Coke's domestic relations had been disturbed by the prosecuting witness.
These questions were objected to by the prosecution on the ground that, being new matter, it could not be brought out in cross-examination. It was contended that the defense would have to make Mr. Ridgewell their witness to ask him these questions.

A long wrangle over the point followed, and ended by Captain Happer, for the defense, moving that Judge Martin withdraw the court's witness. When the prosecution had rested the court called Mr. Ridgewell to the stand, and on direct and cross-examination he stated that his relations with Mrs. Coke had been entirely proper, and that he had never had any correspondence with her, except to receive a note asking for a loan of $50, to which he did not reply. Witness exhibited a letter written to him by Mrs.
O'Neill, sister to Mrs. Coke, in which she asked his advice in regard to trouble which she said existed between Mr.
Coke and his wife. Mrs. Coke, the letter stated, was thinking of leaving Mr.
Coke. Mr. Ridgewell's reply to the letter was exhibited. It advised Mrs.
O'Neill against Mrs. Coke leaving her husband, saying that such a course could bring no happiness to her. Witness said he considered Mrs. O'Neill's letter to him a queer one, but he answered it from a sense of duty.

Mr. Coke was put on the stand as the first witness for the defense. He said he shot Mr. Ridgewell because of a contention his wife made to him and a note he found in her possession. He was on the stand nearly all the afternoon, Mr. Thoni, for the prosecution, subjecting him to a rigid and at times seath-ing cross-examination. The prosecution made the point that the defendant was unwarranted in reaching the conclusions he did, and warning was given that witnesses would be introduced to impeach him. An effort will also be made to show that the defendant admitted that he shot Mr. Ridgewell under a misapprehension and attempted to bribe a colored girl and man to testify in his behalf.

Mr. John G. Tilton, who was employed as counsel by Mrs. Coke at the time of the shooting, testified as to the defendant trying to get Mrs. Coke to sue Mr. Ridgewell. This proposition, Mr.
Tilton said, was made to his client at the interview between Mrs. Coke and the defendant on the day of the shooting. Mrs. Coke replied, according to witness, that she would not swear a lie against Mr. Ridgewell if she could gain millions of dollars by doing so.

It was learned from Mr. Mallett, of the defense, that night that witnesses will be introduced to-day for the purpose of impeaching Mr. Ridgewell.

The 11-year old son of Mr. Coke was introduced for the defense. His evidence related to what occurred between his father and stepmother on the day of the shooting.

The hearing of the case will be resumed at 10:30 o'clock this morning.

SENT ON FOR ROBBERY.
Henry Daniel, a negro, was charged in the Police Court yesterday morning with invading the house of Mr. D.
Etheridge, No. 363 Freemason street, with the intent to commit robbery.
Captain P. E. Yeatman, who was passing at the time, discovered the negro trying to escape. He was arrested by Officers West, Turner and wards. The robbery occurred Tuesday night and Daniel was sent on to the grand jury.

SUNDAY LIQUOR SELLING.

Court yesterday for selling liquor last and
